

Introducing HWS - Partnering with Charities and Not-for-Profits through Expertise and Integrity

At HWS, we specialise in delivering tailored insurance solutions to charities and not-for-profits of all sizes, from grassroots organisations to international foundations. As an insurance broker born in the heart of the City of London, we combine deep market knowledge with access to Lloyd's of London and other leading insurers to offer bespoke coverage that meets the unique needs of the charitable sector.

Our global reach is matched by our local commitment. With offices and resources across key markets, we maintain strong relationships and a hands-on approach to service. Every charity and not-for-profit we work with benefits from a dedicated service team, our in-house claims team and access to a wide panel of charity-focused insurers, many with multinational capabilities.

Experience across the sector

We've supported charity and not-for-profit clients working in areas such as:

- > Promoting disability inclusion in sport
- > Showcasing special collections and archives that document everyday life and the people who have driven social, political and cultural change
- > Advancing awareness, prevention and management of heart disease
- > Advocating for financial support for parents of seriously ill children
- > Improving population health and reducing inequalities, supporting bold innovation in health and care services, and producing evidence and analysis that strengthens health and care policy

We understand the complex nature of mitigating a charity's exposure to risk. Our insurance solutions include but are not limited to:

- > Trustees Liability (Directors' & Officers' Liability)
- > Employers' & Public Liability
- > Professional Indemnity
- > Cyber Liability
- > Events insurance
- > Personal Accident & Travel
- > Key Person Cover

Supporting Charities Beyond Insurance

We also recognise that meeting space in London is often at a premium for charities. If you're a Charity Intelligence member, feel free to reach out to discuss using our meeting rooms and facilities - we'd be happy to host you.

We look forward to connecting with fellow Charity Intelligence members and supporting your mission with trusted insurance expertise
